

Rep. Sue Myrick (R-NC), Chairman

230 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

<http://johnshadegg.house.gov/rsc/>

ph (202) 226-9717 / fax (202) 226-1633

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
June 17, 2004

Contact: Andy Polk
(202) 225-1976

RSC Chairman Myrick Announces RSC Staff Promotions

(Washington, D.C.) – Today, RSC Chairman Sue Myrick (NC-9) announced that Sheila Moloney has been promoted to Executive Director of the Republican Study Committee. Sheila was previously the Policy Director for the RSC. She replaces Neil Bradley who is now the Policy Director for Majority Whip Roy Blunt.

In addition, Rep. Myrick announced that Paul Teller has been promoted to Deputy Director of the RSC. Paul was previously the Legislative Director for the RSC.

Finally, Lisa Bos has been promoted to Policy Director. Lisa was previously the RSC's Education Reform Project Director and Policy Specialist.

The RSC is a caucus of over 90 House Republicans. It is organized for the purpose of advancing a conservative fiscal and social agenda in the House of Representatives.

###